

American Ground Water Trust
2009
Ground Water Institute for Teachers™

Santa Clara Valley/ United Water Conservation District

Two-day program training program for teachers covering water issues, water management and the importance of ground water resources

Pre-registration required – program is FREE for teachers
Substitute reimbursement for classroom teachers is available for Day 2 of this Institute.

Dates/ Times: Thursday, 5 Nov (4:30-8:30pm) and Friday 6 Nov (8:00am – 4:30pm)

Location: City of Oxnard, Multi-Purpose Training Facility, 251 S. Hayes Avenue, Oxnard, CA

Sponsored by: United Water Conservation District, Santa Paula, CA 93060

Teachers/ educators invited to attend from these Ventura County School Districts and Post Secondary Schools:

School Districts within Ventura County

Briggs Elementary
Fillmore Unified
Hueneme Elementary
Mesa Union
Mupu
Ocean View Elementary
Oxnard
Oxnard Union High
Pleasant Valley Elementary
Rio Elementary
Santa Clara Elementary
Santa Paula Elementary
Santa Paula Union High
Somis Union
Ventura Unified
Vista Real Charter High

Post Secondary Schools

California State University, Channel Islands
Moorpark College
Oxnard College
St. Johns' Seminary
So.Cal. Institute of Law, Ventura Campus
Ventura College
World University of America, Ojai

Registration is required. There is no fee to attend.

Register to attend at http://www.agwt.org/teachers/2009/09CAGWI_OxnardReg.htm

For more information/ program details go to http://www.agwt.org/teachers/2009/09CAGWI_Oxnard_Program.pdf

Questions:

American Ground Water Trust: Andrew Stone (603) 228-5444 [astone@agwt.org]
United Water Conservation District, Ken Breitag or Tony Morgan, (805) 525-4431